

Minutes
Homestead Parent Club Meeting
April 18, 2019

Present: There were a quorum present at the meeting.

Welcome: Ms. Chris Perez welcomed all to the meeting and reviewed the agenda.

Guest Speaker: Dr. Park Ginder joined the meeting. He passed out a Wall Street Journal Article by Sue Shellenbarger entitled “Remember, It’s Their College Years, Not Years,” which discussed pressure parents place on their high school students and how some parents project their own dreams onto their children. The PTC discussed the article with Dr. Ginder. Next, Dr. Ginder discussed that this year semi-formal would only be open to Homestead students, prom would remain open to non-HHS students. Dr. Ginder then provided the PTC with an update on the Homestead School re-build and status

Ms. Perez then turned it over to Cindy Maucione for a Treasurer’s Report.

Treasurers Report: Ms. Maucione distributed copies and reviewed financial performance for the PTC to date. The Club discussed adding an orientation event for rising ninth graders and their families.

Committee Reports:

Ms. Willits provided an update on the Senior Bucket List Scholarship process. Applications will be due the end of April. Five applicants will be chosen for $500 each and will be presented at Senior Activity Day.

Next the minute from the PTC forum were approved.

New Business: The Club then discussed the following new business:

- Senior Activity Day: Will be May 24th starting at 10:00. There will be a brunch, talent show, awards and superlatives
- Volunteer Appreciation: Will be May 9th at 10:00 at Ms. Perez’s house: Bring a dish to share
- The Club then discussed 2019 -2020 chairpersons

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at approximately 12:00 pm.
